

FAITH & CULTURE

3rd Saturday Speaker Series

Join us each 3rd Saturday at the crossroads of faith and culture. Saturday March 18th Deacon John Storm will be speaking on "Crime and Restorative Justice- A Catholic Perspective".

John Storm is the Director of Catholic Restorative Justice Ministries for the Diocese of Santa Rosa. He is a Deacon of the Catholic Church and was ordained in 2012. Prior to ordination, John worked as an investigator for the Probate Division of the Sonoma County Superior Court for five years and was a federal probation officer in the Northern District of California, a deputy probation officer for San Francisco and Contra Costa Counties and a Counselor at the San Francisco Youth Guidance Center and Boy's Ranch, for a total of over 35 years. During his career, John was a lecturer at the University of San Francisco and on the adjunct faculty of the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Academy. He is a co-author of two U.S. Probation Office training manuals and author of the article "What U.S. Probation Officers Do" published in Federal Probation Quarterly (March 1997). John is married and resides with his wife in Santa Rosa, California.

Saturday
March 18 at 9:30 am
ST APOLLINARIS Hall

Deacon John Storm

"Crime and Restorative Justice - a Catholic Perspective"

OUR NEXT SPEAKER

May 20
Fr. Mitch Pacwa

Join us
All are welcome
Free of charge

ST APOLLINARIS
CATHOLIC CHURCH

3700 LASSEN ST NAPA CA
94558 707-257-2555

www.stapollinarisparish.org

for more information